1. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good afternoon. I'm James, the leader of our school band, Rockstars. For the school festival next month, all of our band members are practicing hard to put on a fantastic show. However, we want to have a concert that everyone can enjoy. So, we're asking you to recommend some specific songs you want to hear us play. If you have any songs in mind, please write them down on a piece of paper. Then, drop it into the request box in front of the music room by this Friday. We will select a few songs and perform them. Thank you for your participation.

2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Leo, is something wrong with your legs?

M: Yes. I have a little pain in them. Maybe I exercised too much yesterday.

W: Oh, did you stretch after exercising?

M: No. I was tired, so I just rested afterwards.

W: You shouldn't skip stretching right after a workout.

M: Is it that important?

W: Yes. Without stretching, your muscles stay tight, and they hurt.

M: Oh, I didn't know that.

W: Try spending just a few minutes stretching next time. It helps your muscles recover faster.

M: That sounds helpful.

W: Yeah. Stretching after exercise can really reduce pain.

M: Okay. I'll make sure to do it from now on.

3. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 요지로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, viewers! Thanks for tuning in to my video channel, All4HighSchool. When I first started high school, I hardly talked to anyone and kept waiting for others to speak first. But I soon learned something important: be the one who says hello first! A simple “Hi” in the hallway can sometimes turn into a short, friendly chat. It can make things easier around new people. Saying “Good morning” to friends first can help build good relationships with them. So as you begin this new school life, remember: a small greeting can be the spark that builds new connections.

4. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오

M: Hi, Emma. What are you looking at?

W: Hi. My friend took a picture of me on Sports Day. Look at this.

M: Oh, I see the Blue Team banner between two poles. Were you on the Blue Team?

W: Yes. Our team did great this year.

M: Is that your cap, the one on the chair?

W: No, it's not mine. I think someone left it there.

M: I see. You said you were volunteering after the games, right?

W: Yes. When this picture was taken, I was picking up a can that was on the ground.

M: That's nice. I like the striped shirt you were wearing.

W: Thanks. All the volunteers wore the same striped shirts.

M: Oh, I also see three soccer balls beside the pole.

W: Yes. Those were the balls used for the soccer game. I also had to pick them up.

M: Wow, that sounds like a busy day. Thanks for sharing the picture with me!

5. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Jack, are you ready for the online group discussion?

M: Yes. But, I'm a little worried since it's my first time hosting an online discussion!

W: Really? Then, I can help you double check things before you start.

M: Thanks.

W: Did you share the online link in the group chat?

M: Yes, I did. I also uploaded the materials to the shared folder.

W: Nice. Have you checked the camera angle?

M: Yes, it's all set.

W: You're doing pretty good so far. [Pause] Oh, don't forget to check the microphone.

M: Don't worry. I've already tested it. It works well.

W: Perfect. Okay, everything seems ready. You can start now.

M: Wait, I haven't started the recording yet. I'll start the recording soon. Thank you for your help.

W: My pleasure. Good luck!

6. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

M: How may I help you?

W: Hi. I'm looking for some pajamas.

M: How about these? They're our new cotton pajamas for spring.

W: Let me see. Oh, I like the pattern. They look comfortable. How much are they?

M: They are 20 dollars.

W: Oh, sounds good. What sizes do you have?

M: We have three sizes, small, medium, and large.

W: I'd like two pairs of pajamas, both medium size, please. One for me and one for my mom.

M: That's sweet! Your mother will love them. Do you also want these socks to go with them? They are 5 dollars for each pair.

W: Yes, I'll take two pairs.

M: Perfect. So, you need two pairs of pajamas and two pairs of socks. Is that correct?

W: Yes, that's right. Can I use this coupon?

M: Sure. You can get 10 percent off of the total price.

W: Okay. Here's my credit card.

W: Hi, Jake. I was wondering if you made it to the library on time yesterday.

M: Yes, I did. But I couldn't borrow the history book for my assignment.

W: Really? Why not? Did someone else check it out already?

M: No, it was still on the shelf.

W: Did you forget your student card then?

M: No, I had it with me.

W: What happened? Do you have any late books you haven't returned yet?

M: No. I always return books before the due date.

W: Then why couldn't you borrow the history book?

M: There was a problem with the library network system, so no one could check out any books.

W: Oh, I see. That must've been frustrating.

M: Sounds interesting. When will it take place?

W: It'll be held from April 11th to April 29th.

M: Okay. What do participants do in the event?

W: They record their running or walking distance, and share it on their social media.

M: I see. Is there any prize for the participants?

W: Yeah. If they meet the requirements, they'll get a water bottle.

M: Wow, that's good. I'd like to join the event. How can I sign up for it?

W: You can scan this QR code and fill out the application form online.

M: Great. Thanks.

It will be held on Friday, May 8th, at the school computer lab. It will last for three hours, starting at 4 p.m. and ending at 7 p.m. The program is composed of two parts. The first part introduces basic AI concepts, and the second one includes AI coding practices. Computers will be provided, so students do not need to bring their own computers. Students who complete the program will receive a small gift. We hope many of you will join us.

10. 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 여자가 예약할 수업을 고르시오.

M: Jessie, I heard your sister's birthday is next week. Do you have any plans?

W: Yeah, we're thinking about taking a one-day class together. I've been looking at a few options.

M: Maybe I can help you choose. What kind of classes are you interested in?

W: Umm... I want to try baking, so I'm trying to choose between Cake Baking and Cookie Baking.

M: Then let's narrow it down. What level are you looking for?

W: Since it'll be our first class together, I'll leave out the advanced level.

M: Okay. You probably don't want a big class, right?

W: Yes. I'd prefer a small group — fewer than eight people.

M: Got it. Then you have two options left. How about the price?

W: It's her birthday, so I'll choose the more expensive one.

M: Then this class looks perfect for you.

W: Yeah, I think she'll really enjoy it. I'll book it right away!

W: Dad, look! I finally fixed your bicycle!

W: Oh, no. We're supposed to start the book mentoring project today.

M: Right. Should we go ahead with just the two of us?

W: Hmm... It'll be hard to run the project properly without him.

M: I think so, too. And Ms. Jefferson told us to make sure every member participates in the gathering.

W: Then what should we do?

M: Maybe we should ask Ms. Jefferson if we can start the project next week instead.

W: Okay. It's better to start when everyone is ready.

W: Yes, I'll welcome visitors and inform them about the center.

M: That sounds great. Do you expect a lot of people to come?

W: I hope so. More visitors mean more chances for the animals to be adopted.

M: That's right. By the way, have you finished setting things up for the event?

W: Pretty much done for now. But I need good photos to upload on social media after the event.

M: Actually, I recently bought a new camera. I can take photos during the event.
